Honors to Baden-Powell.

LONDON, May 19 .- London tonight is in a state of carnival, so far as the leading thoroughfares are concerned. The liberation from toil of hundreds of thousands of the working classes in the afternoon to some extent changes the character of the celebration which in the forenoon had been marked by the absence of disorder and by many graceful incidents, more especially in the West End. Col. Baden-Powell's house, which faces Hyde Park, was all day the center of scenes which must have been extremely gratifying to his family, who constantly appeared on the balcony to bow their acknowledgments. In addition there was a continuous stream of carriages bringing visitors leaving cards of congratulation.

When the art students' procession which was of great length, baving been joined by many members of the best families, stopped in front of the house the hero's mother and sister came to the window, evidently greatly moved. His sister fetched a large oil portrait of the colonel, wreathed in laurels, and placed, it conspicuously on the balcony. When the storm of cheers ceased for a moment the colonel's mother briefly addressed the crowd, expressing her heartfelt thanks to the demonstra-

At about this time a beautifully appointed equigage drew along, in which was three ladies, each comp'etely attired in one of the national colors-red, white and blue. The charming effect of this, and similar incidents, gave a picturesque touch to the festivities. Everywhere were seen processions and various bands in carnival or kbaki attire, accompanied by pretty girls and youths collecting money for the various funds connected with the war.
